Advertisement TO THE READER.

He Reader is desired to take Notice, First, That the several Counties in England are Alphabetically placed, and then Wales afterwards in like Order; and that the Noble-men and others (who by vertue of their Dignities and Imployments are Justices of the Peace throughout England and Wales) are mentioned but once in this Catalogue, though they are inserted in each particular Commission; and for the Readers ease, are placed at the beginning, under their several Offices by vertue of which they are so qualified.

Secondly, That those Names that have this Mark * before them, are such as are not of the Quorum.

Thirdly, That Richard Earl of Carberry stands in all the Commissions for Wales, as also His Majesties Attorney-General for the Principality; and therefore named onely in Anglesey. And by Judges or Justices of the great Sessions, is meant their Judges of Assize; that being the term used for the Judges there, except for Three Counties, viz. Denbigh, Flint, and Merioneth, which are in the Circuit pertinent to the Judges of Chester.
A 2 the

Lastly, That the several Justices of the Peace in Cities and Towns Corporate are omitted, because they are generally appointed by Charter, and not lyable to alteration.
